

Mama on the Homestead

JESSICA QUINN

WRITER/BLOGGER/VIRTUAL ASSISTANT

I am the single mother of five wild kiddos, the creator of Mama on the Homestead & Bless Your Blog, and the virtual assistant and web designer for multiple homestead organizations and brands.

My little from-scratch homestead currently consists of chickens (meat & eggs), honeybees, and a large sustainable garden. I have also raised goats, pigs, ducks, rabbits and cattle.

My goal is to live a simple, joyful, sustainable, and purposeful life with my children in tow.
